ORAL JUDGEMENT

The present Miscellaneous Criminal Application requires to be disposed of, in the manner indicated below.

It appears that, there was a prayer for remand which came to be negativated by the Court below. That was done under the orders dated August 20, 1991. When the remand cannot be obtained, the present petitioner, who is the original complainant has preferred the present application for setting aside the said orders and for a further prayer of remand. The orders challenged as indicated above, were passed on August 20, 1991. No useful purpose is going to be served by allowing the present application and to set aside the orders of the Court below and to order the remand. The present application, therefore, requires to be disposed of. The same is hereby accordingly disposed of. The rule shall stand discharged.
